

What to expect in Worship

Before Worship

When coming for worship, you enter through the Russell or Fairview doors. Head towards the sanctuary and find the order of worship outside the center doors. Then head on in and pick any pew you want! Spend some time getting comfortable or familiarizing yourself with the space.

Communion

At FCC Missoula, the communion table is open to any and all who wish to partake. Our Worship team will lead us through communion preparation and then invite you forward to partake. If you are unable to journey forward, we do deliver communion to seats.

During Worship

During worship we invite you to follow along in the order of worship. There are times of singing, praying, sharing, and listening. You are invited to do as much or as little as you would like.

Music is found in the books in the pew and on the screen at the front of the sanctuary.

Joining FCC

At FCC Missoula, we accept members by confession of faith. If you are interested in becoming a member, we invite you to talk to our Pastor or an elder of the congregation after worship and they can tell you more about what it means to be part of the congregation.

After Worship

Join in a time of fellowship across the hall in the Fellowship Hall. This is a time for coffee, snacks, and community building.
